PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT— BONDS—INTEREST RATES

H. J. R. No. 7

Proposing an amendment to Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding a new section which would remove constitutional limitations, subject to limits imposed by the Legislature, on rates of interest to be borne by bonds issued pursuant to constitutional authority.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 64 to read as follows:

"Section 64. All other provisions of the Constitution notwithstanding, bonds issued pursuant to constitutional authority shall bear such rates of interest as shall be prescribed by the issuing agency, subject to limitations as may be imposed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August, 1969, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to remove the constitutional interest rate limitations, subject to limits imposed by the Legislature, for bonds issued pursuant to constitutional authority."

Adopted by the House on April 1, 1969: Yeas 120, Nays 19; passed by the Senate on April 16, 1969: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

Signed by the Governor April 17, 1969.
